

Dimensions Festival

---

JUNIOR GRAPHIC DESIGN PLACEMENT

---

---

OVERVIEW OF ROLE

---

Outlook Festival and Dimensions Festival have an exciting opportunity as a Junior Design Placement Volunteer working on projects for our festival's promotional campaigns.

We are looking for a talented entry-level junior designer to join our marketing team here in London, with a passion for the music behind our festivals, and an ability to work on time sensitive briefs.

You'll be working alongside our in-house graphic designer, producing the design content mainly for our digital output, but there will also be a chance to work on some print work and more. You'll also get the opportunity to add your own mark by coming up with new concepts and ideas on how to improve the festivals visual output.

---

RESPONSIBILITIES

---

- Creating consistent artwork that adhere to our tight brand guidelines
- Offering input to creative meetings and sharing ideas
- Ability to work to tight deadlines
- Communicating with other team members to receive feedback
- Supporting the team throughout the execution of campaigns and projects

A working knowledge of the following is a must:

- InDesign
- Illustrator
- Photoshop

Hours/Days are flexible, but you'll be required to work with us in our East London based office three days a week. Placement lasts 10 weeks.

---

Please send portfolio examples (PDF or website link), CV and a brief cover letter describing yourself and why you'd be suited to do this placement to:

design@outlookfestival.com with the title 'Junior Design Placement - Your Name'